

Girl Scout Sabbath/Shabbat—March 6–7, 2026
Celebrating Girl Scout Sabbath/Shabbat

On my honor, I will try:
To serve God and my country,
To help people at all times,
And to live by the Girl Scout Law.

Girl Scout Sabbath (also known as Shabbat) honors the shared commitment to community, service, learning, and leadership. Since 1912, Girl Scouts has supported girls in grades 4K–12 as they develop skills, confidence, and a strong sense of responsibility to others.

Girl Scouts welcomes youth members and adult volunteers from all backgrounds who want to help girls thrive and lead with purpose.
